CORTLAND UNDER COACH CHUCK WINTERS

In each of his six seasons as the head coach of Cortland State's varsity lacrosse team, Charles "Chuck" Winters has guided the Red Dragons into post season tournament play. In 1973, his first year at Cortland, Winters coached the Red n' White sticks to the USILA crown with a 13-8 ousting of Washington College in the final. The Dragons advanced to the NCAA Division II semi-finals the following year before bowing to Hobart College, 14-10.

Cortland came back to avenge that loss in 1975, Winters' stickmen edging Hobart, 12-11, in the championship game to win their second national lacrosse title in three years. The 1976 season was Winters' most disappointing, the Dragons finishing with a 5-6 record overall. A 12-11, quarter-final loss to Ohio Wesleyan ended any NCAA title hopes that year.

The Dragons ended the 1977 campaign with an 8-5 mark, UMBC eliminating them from the national tourney, 17-7, after Cortland had bested C.W. Post, 12-7, in the opening round. Last year, his sixth on "The Hill," Winters led his Dragons to a 9-4 record and a 13-12 victory over first-round challenger, Towson State. Hobart, eventual Division II runnerup, then defeated Cortland, 24-9, in semi final play.

Winters' coaching log at Cortland reads 53 wins and 24 losses. During his six years at Cortland, 23 of his players have earned All-American recognition. Over that period eight Dragon stickmen have gained first team status, eight have been second team selections, and seven honorable mention picks.

Winters came to Cortland in 1971 and served two years as an assistant under Jack Emmer, now at Washington & Lee. Previously, he was an assistant at Bowling Green where he earned bachelor's and master's degrees. During his Bowling Green playing days, he was an All-American midfielder and a two-time All-Midwest performer. He played in the North-South game as a senior.

At Cortland, Winters also has coached JV soccer and has been an assistant varsity football coach. He is often invited to participate in lacrosse clinics at the high school and collegiate levels.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JERRY CASCIANI--A member of the Cortland faculty since 1970, Jerry Casciani is starting his sixth season as assistant lacrosse coach. He'll be largely responsible for the team's conditioning program and will work extensively with the midfield lines. He also has served as an assistant coach in football and has handled both varsity and JV wrestling teams. One of Casciani's previous assignments was as head lacrosse coach at Baltimore Junior College for three years. His 1967 team had an undefeated season and won the "unofficial" national junior college championship. Casciani is an alumnus of Springfield College and has a master's degree from Penn State.

LARRY KING--A Cortland alumnus, Larry "Bubba" King played four years of lacrosse for the Red Dragons, playing goal and attack positions. He's coached Cortland's JV team in the past and works principally with the middies and man-up offense on the varsity. King is from Huntington.

SANDY KAPATOS--Working with the goalies and team defense this year will be newcomer Sandy Kapatos. An undergraduate in physical education and physical therapy at Cortland, Kapatos starred in goal for last year's third-ranked Division I Terrapins of the University of Maryland. Kapatos, at Nassau Community College before transferring to Maryland, was a two-time Junior College All-American there in leading his team to a pair of national titles. He is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he attended Division Avenue High School.

PATRICK KEEFE--Taking over the junior varsity chores this year will be Pat Keefe, a graduate assistant at Cortland. Keefe, a native of Binghamton, N.Y., worked as an assistant for last year's junior varsity squad. A 1974-75 transfer from RIT, Keefe played lacrosse for the Engineers for one year. He also played one season as an undergraduate at Cortland.

KEVIN BRODERICK--One of the Red Dragons' starting midfielders a year ago, Kevin Broderick will be a JV assistant this season. Broderick, from Stony Brook, N.Y., will handle man-up situations and the midfield for the junior Dragons. A senior physical education major whose athletic eligibility has run out, Broderick was a four-year varsity letterman under Coach Winters and was named the most improved player in 1977. He scored 11 points last year, on eight goals and three assists.

CORTLAND'S VARSITY LACROSSE OUTLOOK FOR 1979 SEASON

By Ron Moshier

There's a good chance that Cortland's 1979 varsity lacrosse team will be invited to its eighth straight post-season tournament, with a nucleus of 14 lettermen returning from last year's 9-4, NCAA Division II semi-final club leading the way.

"I think we will definitely make the NCAA tournament," claims seven-year head Coach Chuck

Winters. "But how quickly we jell - that's the thing I'm concerned with."

"It is definitely the toughest schedule we've ever had," says Winters, whose troops tackle their longest regular season slate in history with face-offs against four top-ranked Division I challengers and six, 1978 Division II tournament teams included. The five remaining games are SUNY conference match-ups, with Cortland trying to defend the title it won a year ago with a 5-0 mark.

One plus, a long-standing tournament tradition, could help the Dragons. But the loss of ten lettermen, and the absence of an explosive, take-charge attacker and an experienced goalie, may not.

Setauket's Mike Hoppey, a two-time All-American who became Cortland's all-time leading scorer a year ago with 30 goals and 37 assists, has graduated and attackmates Mark Koetzner (34G-26A) and Bill Duford (26G-15A) have also departed. Those three topped the Dragon scoring list last season.

Three freshmen will be trying to win the goalie job vacated by graduated Dave Haefele, an All-American honorable mention choice, and Joe Lore. Winters may go to a rotating or combination set-up similar to last season.

Winters considers his close defense as the team's strong point, with a talented returning quartet anchoring the unit, which lost the services of graduated, two-time All-American Jim Burke.

RETURNEES --Only a pair of attackmen have returned from last year's potent offense that averaged over 16 goals per game, and just one will be a starter. Senior letterman Rich Bucaro from Great Neck, and Westbury junior Mike Fitzpatrick are the holdovers. Bucaro, a 6-2, 200 pound tri-captain, will be a starter in the crease for the Dragon stickmen.

Another letterman Mark Leszczynski, a 6-3, 205 pound sophomore from Henrietta, should supply some much needed firepower. Formerly a middle, Leszczynski was fourth in scoring in '78 with 13 goals and three assists as a first-year player.

Eight lettermen should solidify the Dragon midfield. Levittown junior Larry O'Leary, last season's No. 4 scorer with 14 goals and nine assists, and White Plains' Steve Winokur, who had 15 goals and five assists as a freshman in '78, head the group. Winters is expecting senior Bob Leyden of Levittown to have his best season ever for Cortland, and is hoping Glen Cove junior Jerry Demeo can shake his injury jinx. Deer Park soph Tom Maloney and junior Brad Gerla from Great Neck give the Red Dragons defensive strength and speed at the midfield. Binghamton native Colin Soule, a letterman a year ago as a freshman, and Tom Stimson, a sophomore from North Syracuse, are the other returning middies. Stimson, "is very aggressive, has good speed, and is one of our key face-off midfielders," says Coach Winters.

The Dragon coach feels his returning defensive foursome is potentially the strongest unit he has ever had, with captains Jim Bonaventura, a senior from Dix Hills, and Port Washington's Jon Fitzgerald teaming with Larchmont soph John Distler and Billy Dunn of Hicksville. Fitzgerald, a junior who transferred from Nassau C.C. a year ago, was an honorable mention All-American pick in '78.

NEWCOMERS--The Dragons will be counting on a number of new faces this year, including three freshman goaltenders who will be contending for starting cage duty. Ithaca High grad Beau Saule, Greenlawn's Steve McGann, and Jim Braun from Huntington are the prospects.

Levittown's Terry David and Jim Denk from Rush are Cortland's newcomers on attack. Davis, a junior transfer from Nassau County Community College, will team with Leszczynski and Bucaro while Denk, an RIT transfer, should add some reserve scoring punch.

Seven first-year middies, including four from last year's JV squad, have a shot at cracking the starting lineup. Mt. Kisco's Bob Harris, Brent Hopkins of Branchport, North Syracuse soph Gene Gleeson, and Curt Stokes of Dix Hills starred for the junior Dragons a year ago. A pair of freshmen, West Genesee alumnus Mark Sabert and Scarsdale's Brendan Curran, have also impressed, as has Nassau sophomore transfer Nick Mongelli from Yonkers.

Cortland has two new faces on defense, including former JV performer Ed Krukowski from Roslyn and Stony Point frosh Seth O'Hanian.
